Welcome

- Call to order
 - 2:35pm

- Update on SPP for 22-23
 - Goals (first part of SPP)
 - Shared with staff on 10/4, community on 10/6 at SOT meeting, and will be shared with LIT team 10/7
 - Goal is to increase amount of students scoring above 60th percentile from 45% in Fall to 50% in Winter and 55% in Spring
 - Parent question: Do we earn extra money for hitting testing score goals? No
 - Adult Learning Culture: Focus on Professional Development for teachers to enrich learning on standards and details within each standard.
 - Connectedness:
 - Goal is to increase the percentage of students who feel a sense of belonging from 67% in Fall to 70% in Winter and 73% in Spring.
 - To reach this goal, the students identified as not feeling a sense of belonging will have a “lunch bunch”.
 - Budget: (second part of SPP)
 - Strategic Budget is just over 3 million, Teacher cost is just over 2.95 million
 - Title III money is for ELL students
 - At-risk funds: based on all data they analyze, they determine how many students potentially may not graduate high school. These funds are targeted for these students.
 - CTT’s purchased to work with classes
